TIM'S WALKER OF THE WEEK

My Walkers of the Week this time around are Corey Dickson (VIC), Will Thompson (VIC), Olivia Sandery (SA) and Alanna Peart (VIC). They have been named as part of the team which should have been off to compete at the World U20 Athletics Championships in July in Nairobi, Kenya. These championships had been scheduled for 2020 but were pushed back a year due to covid. Now, Athletics Australia Management has decided not to send their team to Africa due to safety concerns.

An Oceania Championship event will be held in June, on the Gold Coast to enable the team to wear the green and gold they deserved. Although it is some recognition, it is small recompense compared to competing at World Championship level.

Well done also to coaches Brent Vallance, Donna Dickson, Boc Cruise and Wayne Peart.

All 4 walkers were well under the 10,000m qualifying standards, with times as follows

Corey Dickson	41:34	Oceania U20 Road Championship, Melbourne	27/03/2021
Will Thompson	42:26.87	Australian U20 Track Championship, Sydney	15/04/2021
Olivia Sandery	47:03.55	Australian U20 Track Championship, Sydney	15/04/2021
Alanna Peart	48:04	Oceania U20 Road Championship, Melbourne	27/03/2021

Hopefully these are the first of many Australian vests for these talented walkers.

VRWC ROADWALKS, MIDDLE PARK, SATURDAY 15 MAY 2021

A good turnout of 44 walkers braved the elements at Middle Park on Saturday afternoon for the latest round of the VRWC winter season. As Melbourne suffered through a weekend of antarctic cold, the competitors seemed to thrive in the low temperatures and blustery winds, with lots of PBs and plenty of strong walks.

Alison Thompson (1:18:41) and Donna-Marie Elms (1:21:11) were the only two brave souls who tested themselves out over 12km. Kyle Swan (42:58) led from the front as usual in the 10km while Mark Blackwood (23:03) and Ariana Pashutina (25:41) were best in the 5km walk. Special mentions to Madeleine Feain (big PB of 53:54 in the 10km) and Kate Saviour who did her longest walk yet with the club, finishing the 10km in an impressive 58:48.

2.	Paul Kennedy	M60	30:06	3
3.	Geoff Barrow	M60	36:52	2

The 3km and 1.5km walks started a bit later, with 22 competitors in total. Riley Coughlan led them out and quickly took control, finishing first in the 3km with a PB of 14:22. Behind him, 10 year old Ela Uzun and 47 year old Pramesh Prasad had a great battle, with Pramesh (15:13) just pipping Ela (15:15). Ela's time was yet another big PB, breaking our VRWC U11 and U12 club records. Her 9 year old cousin Havana Ali was also in PB mode with her 3km time of 17:02. In fact, if you inspect the results, there were PBs galore. Well done to Christal Xie – her first walk last week was a 2km and this week she upped the ante to 3km (21:15).

The 1.5km event saw Kelsey Loudon (8:52) and Beau McKinnon (9:28) win their respective races. It was Beau's first walk with the club, as was also the case for Oliver and Annika Erickson, the children of triple Olympian Chris Erickson. Albin Hess must have felt like Old Tather Time, mixing it with all the youngsters!

TWRC ROADWALKS, PONTVILLE PARK, HOBART, SATURDAY 15 MAY 2021

Thanks to Dave Moore for this week's results from Tasmania. He reports: Cool temperatures and bright late autumn sunshine greeted our walkers for the TRWC events at Pontville Park last Saturday. Less than ideal however was the strong head wind at the start of each 1km lap. Most handled the conditions well, finishing with similar times to last week. The big improver of the day was Wayne Fletcher who improved over a minute from last week's outing over 6km.

EUROPEAN RACE WALKING TEAM CHAMPIONSHIPS, PODEBRADY, CZE, SUNDAY 16 MAY 2021

The European Race Walking Team Championships (called The European Race Walking Cup until 2021) is Europe's biggest race walking carnival, established in 1996, and organised by the European Athletic Association. Held every 2 years, this is the 15th staging. The wikipedia page https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/European_Race_Walking_Team_Championships tells you everything you ever needed to know about this event, and more!

This year saw 212 entrants in total (111 men and 101 women) representing 25 Member Federations and competing across the six events which make up the programme. And what better city to host this event than Podebrady, a historical spa town in the Central Bohemian Region of the Czech Republic. Starting in 1929, a 50km racewalk from Prague to Podesbrady was held annually. In the early 1990s, because of safety concerns, the event was moved to the ring road in Podesbrady and it is still held every year as a large international racewalking carnival.

My race reports are taken from the European Athletics website <https://european-athletics.com/>.

50km Walk Men

Marc Tur walked the race of his life to win the men's 50km race walk with 3:47:40. Not only that, but the Spaniard recorded an Olympic qualifying time more than two minutes inside the 3:50:00 limit. The tall athlete with a languid style, started to smile with 2km to go and, by the final 500 metres, was beaming. His previous 3:54:51 best from 2019 was history, and a slow start paid dividends in a race he led only at the 43 kilometre-checkpoint. Tur passed the long-time leader Karl Junghanns, who went for broke in a final bid for the Olympic German team. At one stage, Tur was three minutes up on the chasers, but that long, lone effort was doomed the instant Tur took over at the front. He breezed past the flagging German, who dipped his head slightly in acknowledgment of the end of a brave solo effort. Junghanns eventually faded to eighth in 3:52:07..

Chasing Tur was Aleksi Ojala who was sporting a sun visor and dark glasses. The Finnish walker has suffered his fair share of non-finishes in major races, but this time he held his nerve to also record an Olympic qualifier in 3:48:25. Italy's Andrea Agrusti just dipped under the mark needed for Tokyo in third in 3:49:52. As he waved to supporters in the final few metres, it looked as if he might miss out, but came home with eight seconds to spare. Agrusti also led Italy to the team title ahead of Germany and Ukraine.

From a long way back, Latvia's Ruslans Smolonskis charged through for fourth in 3:50:31, with only Ojala missing out on a personal best among the first four. Italian veteran Marco De Luca was fifth in 3:50:48 while the oldest man in the event Jesus Angel Garcia, 51, was 20th in 4:01:14 in what will surely be his last appearance at the European Race Walking Team Championships.

35km Walk Women

Antigoni Drisbioti claimed the best result of a 20-year career when she paced herself perfectly to win the inaugural women's 35km race walk. The 37-year-old Greek has been only moderately successful at the 20km race walk, but the longer distance is where she has found her forte. She was blowing kisses over the final 500m of an unassailable lead.

Italy's arguable pre-race favourite Eleonora Giorgi put down the hammer from the off to notch 9:12 after 2km. At this point, she was actually third on the road in the men's 50km and leading her own race with teammate Marco de Luca alongside for company. However, she soon picked up two disqualification cards to put her on the back foot, followed by tears and clear discomfort around the 14-kilometre mark.

There was a rueful look from Giorgi as she was passed by Drisbioti, and then, somehow, with all seemingly falling apart around her, found a second wind. She moved back into second from fourth after passing Spain's Maria Juarez and Nadzeya Darzhuk from Belarus over the last 10km although Giorgi still looked inconsolable as she crossed the line.

In contrast, teammate Lidia Barcelli passed a tiring Juarez with a lap to go and was delighted with bronze and a near seven-minute PB. Except for Giorgi, the top 10 finishers in the women's 35km race walk all recorded lifetime bests. Italy won team gold ahead of Greece and Belarus respectively. A notable non-finisher was Portugal's Ines Henriques, one of the early standard bearers for the 50km race walk and a former world record holder for the distance. Henriques withdrew from the race at around 20km.

U20 Men 10km Walk

There was drama in the men's U20 10km when the apparent winner went from first to fourth some time after the finish. Dimitri Durand lit the afterburners with a lap to go and came home eleven seconds clear of Spain's Jose Luis Hidalgo, but the Frenchman's sprint had cost him dearly. He picked up a 60-second penalty so the three behind him all moved up a place as Durand was relegated from the podium.

Hidalgo was officially followed home by teammate Paul McGrath, with the bronze going to Serhat Gungor from Turkey. It was a considerable personal best for Hidalgo, who belatedly celebrated his 19th birthday last Wednesday by slicing 41 seconds off his previous mark. Even with the penalty, Durand equalled his 42:26 lifetime best in fourth. His country also claimed team silver behind Spain but ahead of Turkey.

U20 Women 10km Walk

A home win was duly delivered by red-hot favourite Eliška Martínková in the U20 women's race. In truth, the competition was over in little more than a minute as the Czech walker put 50m between herself and the entire field. It was then a solitary display of superiority all the way to the finish for the 18-year-old with a line of blue kinesthetic tape on her arm. The next tape that mattered was the winning variety, and she had started interviews before the top 10 trailed in behind her. Her finishing time 45:46 was another personal best in a procession of outstanding performances that has seen her hack 10 minutes from her time in just two years.

Behind her, Portugal's Adriana Viveiros recorded a personal best of 47:01, just ahead of Mael Bire-Heslouis for a French U20 record. The team competition couldn't have been tighter with Portugal just edging past France for gold, and the Czech Republic taking third.

Open Women 20km Walk

Antonella Palmisano won her second European Race Walking Team Championships title with a walk that saw her eclipse compatriot Eleonora Giorgi's course record with a very impressive 1:27:42. Her victory was exactly like October last year when she took a decisive lead at halfway, stepped off the gas, and then put her foot down again in the final quarter.

It looked as if the 2018 European bronze medallist had overcooked it when three Spaniards clawed back her lead at the 16km mark, but Palmisano found another gear to go away a second and decisive time. That second burst put paid to the chances of reigning European champion Maria Perez and her Spanish compatriots Laura Garcia-Caro and Raquel Gonzalez as far as the individual title was concerned. However, the trio held on in that order to cement a commanding team win for Spain.

Behind Palmisano and the three Spaniards, Ayse Tekdal was a surprise fifth place. She was expected to play a supporting role to Meryem Bekmez, the European U18 and U20 champion, as Turkey's best hope for a medal. However, the latter had a bad day and Tekdal came through in 1:29:47, a 25 second improvement on her previous best. The strong Ukrainian challenge didn't disappoint and Olena Sobchuk, Hanna Shevchuk and Lyudmila Olyanovska came in next - all under 1:30:00 and all within two seconds of each other - for team silver ahead of Italy with bronze.

Open Men 20km Walk

Perseus Karlstrom could have knocked a few seconds off his course record in the men's 20km race walk. Instead, the Swede stopped at the final feed station, not for a drink, but the same mock Viking helmet and Swedish flag he wore through the finish line two years ago in Alytus, Lithuania. Same fun gear, same result. And in doing so, the Swede became the first walker in championship history to win back-to-back titles in the men's 20km race walk.

As he has done in the past, Karlstrom was forced to stay cool in warm conditions as he saw European U23 silver medallist Salih Korkmaz sprint away from the start. He was quickly clocking sub four-minutes for the one kilometre circuit and was out of sight at times until halfway. The chasing group of 10 then shed Great Britain's Tom Bosworth and Italy's Matteo Giupponi just before 11km while Karlstrom and Spaniards Diego Garcia and Alvaro Martin worked through the gears to catch Korkmaz at the 13km mark.

The determined Turk tried to inch an advantage over the next three laps, but every time he pushed, the other three latched onto his shoulder. Finally, Korkmaz, now looking wide-eyed and desperate as he strove to get air into his lungs, felt the effects of his precocious start and fell out of medal contention at the 16km mark. A couple of laps later the elastic also stretched on Garcia, who drifted back a few seconds - soon to be followed by Martin.

The race was done by the time Karlstrom donned his hat. But again, Spain underlined their strength in depth when Martin came home for silver in a lifetime best of 1:19:14. He was followed five seconds later by Garcia. Former World and European champion Miguel Angel Lopez quietly came through for fourth to confirm yet another Spanish team gold. His time of 1:19:25 was only 11 seconds slower than his best time set six years ago, the same year he won the world title in Beijing.

Italy's Franciso Fortunato was in the form of his life to record 1:19:43 and knock a massive 2:18 off his best in the process to finish fifth. France's Gabriel Bordier sprinted the last 50 metres to edge home the thickness of a vest from the spent Korkmaz for sixth place with both timed at 1:20:10.

OUT AND ABOUT

- On Sunday morning, a number of our top walkers competed alongside the runners in the annual Great Ocean Road Half Marathon (Jemima Montag, Bec Henderson and Will Thomson), and Marathon (Quentin Rew and Rhydian Cowley). They all walked strongly over what is an undulating and windy seaside course.

Rhydian	3:29:07	71 / 969
Quentin	3:30:05	74 / 969
Jemima	1:51:28	535 / 2850
Will	1:48:01	442 / 2850
Bec	1:53:13	600 / 2850

- The African Athletics Championships in Algeria have been postponed for a third time due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The biennial event should have been held in 2020 but was rescheduled for June 1 to 5 in Oran, before being moved again to June 22 to 26 in Algiers. Now the event's date and venue are uncertain, with no word yet from the Confederation of African Athletics of new arrangements. World Athletics has set June 29 as the deadline for reaching the qualifying mark to take part at the delayed Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games so this is a major blow to African competitors. See <https://www.insidethegames.biz/articles/1107766/african-athletic-championships-algeria>.
- WADA has welcomed the Swiss Federal Tribunal decision to reject a petition by race walker Alex Schwazer to suspend his eight-year ban from the sport. Schwazer was banned for eight years in 2016 for a second doping offence, having previously served a three-and-a-half year suspension for testing positive for erythropoietin before the London 2012 Olympics. Good! See <https://www.insidethegames.biz/articles/1107848/wada-swiss-federal-tribunal-schwazer>.

And now onto the Olympic related news. The opinion seems to be swinging towards the Games taking place, regardless of the costs. But it's a rocky road.

- Tokyo 2020 has confirmed the Olympic Torch Relay's visit to Hiroshima prefecture next week will be taken off public roads and confined to symbolic celebrations. Similar measures will be taken when the Relay reaches Okayama Prefecture on May 19 and Hyogo, where it is due on May 23 and 24. See <https://www.insidethegames.biz/articles/1107739/tokyo-2020-torch-relay-hiroshima-covid19>.
- The United States' track and field team has cancelled its pre-Tokyo 2020 Olympics training camp in Japan over COVID-19 concerns. The team was set to train in Chiba, the prefecture next to Tokyo, but cancelled the camp "out of concerns for their athletes' safety". See <https://www.insidethegames.biz/articles/1107725/usatf-cancels-chiba-olympic-training>.
- Dozens of Japanese towns have scrapped plans to host Olympic athletes prior to the upcoming Tokyo 2020 Games due to growing concerns over COVID-19 and local medical resources during the fourth wave of infections. See <https://www.insidethegames.biz/articles/1107730/tokyo-2020-host-towns-covid-19>.
- A petition calling for the cancellation of the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games has been submitted to organisers, having reached 350,000 signatures in just nine days. See <https://www.insidethegames.biz/articles/1107763/tokyo-2020-olympics-cancellation-petition>.
- World Athletics President Sebastian Coe has expressed confidence that the Tokyo 2020 Olympic and Paralympic Games can be held safely after claiming participants will be "hermetically sealed from local people". See <https://www.insidethegames.biz/articles/1107767/coe-tokyo-2020-can-be-held-safely>.
- Sapporo, host of the marathon and race walk events at the delayed Tokyo 2020 Olympic and Paralympic Games, has been brought into an expanded state of emergency in Japan. The Japanese Government has extended the current state of emergency COVID-19 restrictions to include the Hokkaido, Okayama and Hiroshima prefectures. The three regions join Tokyo, Osaka, Kyoto, Hyogo, Aichi and Fukuoka in being placed under tougher measures, scheduled to be in place until May 31. See <https://www.insidethegames.biz/articles/1107843/sapporo-state-of-emergency-extension>.
- The Tokyo Olympics are now just over two months away and calls to ditch the Games in the face of the pandemic are getting louder by the day. So why isn't Japan talking about cancelling the Games? A very well balanced article on why the push to hold the Games is so strong. See <https://www.bbc.com/news/world-asia-57097853>.
- Another well argued piece. As the Games draw closer, more and more people will wake up to the alarming fact that they are going ahead. The protest will increase. But simultaneously, as the Games draw closer they are more and more likely to happen, such is the IOC's determination. Two perceptions of reality are on a collision course.
